

Faculty of LawStudy program: Scientific Master in “Private and Business Law”Course Title: “The Consumer Right”Course Credits: 7Language of Instruction: AlbanianCourse Description:

Consumer protection and the legal framework in this field is one of Albania's main issues on the road to EU integration. The signing and entry into force of the SAA made the Albanian state responsible for the harmonization of legislation and the implementation of EU directives. The current law "On consumer Right" aims to protect the interests of consumers in the face of unfair and aggressive commercial practices. It aims to make consumers aware of the rights they have in the contracts related to them, charging the party with responsibility and obligation to inform other consumer legal relationship. In this context, consumer protection acts, aim to achieve distributive justice.

Course Goals:

Information and consumer rights in the publicity phase.

Information and consumer rights in the pre-contractual phase.

Information and consumer rights at the stage of concluding the contract and during its execution.

The right to withdraw from the contract and its terms.

Unfair commercial practices, Institutions responsible for the protection of consumer rights.

Course Requirements:

Regular attendance of classes by students is essential for acquiring knowledge and skills of the subject, therefore attendance is mandatory.

Grading:

The final assessment will be 100 points, which will be divided into:

- 20 points, activation in seminars.

- 80 points, final exam.

Course Schedule: Semester course